Commissioner Black's Report.

Gen. John C. Black, commissioner of pensions, in his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior makes the following sugges-

First. The allowance of $2 per month to minor children entitled to pension is inademinor children entitled to pension is inade quate for their support, and should be increased to $5 per month. Second. That the act of June 16, 1880, be so amended as to permit the benefits of the act to be extended to those who subsequent to the date of its approval from aggravation of their malady may have become helpless. Third. That the existing law that a widow's pension certificate can only bear date from the day on which she files her application should be amended she files her application should be amended to allow the commencement of the pension to date from the death of the husband, the to date from the death of the nusband, the other conditions required by the law being present. Fourth. That section 4,718 of the Revised Statutes be so amended as to prohibit the payment of more than one pension to the same person. Fifth. That the law requiring a pension to be graded according to the rank of the claimant at the time the injury was received should be amended so that the rank subsequently acquired bona fide may be considered by the commissioner in determining the amount of pension to be actioned. Sixth. That the present rate for deafness should be increased by law to $30 per month for total deafness, with intermediate grades to be determined according to the degree of disability. Seventh. That dis-cretion should be lodged in the commissioner in correcting discrepancies in rates of pen-sion for loss of limbs, or Congress should be asked to establish a table of rates for loss of limbs. Eighth. That the law be amended so that the commissioner shall be authorized to pay the pension to the wife of a pensioner, or to a suitable person on behalf of his children, when the habits of the pensioner show him to be an unfit person to receive or disburse the pension. Ninth. That an ap-propriation of $18,000 be made to defray the expenses of additional necessary pension agencies. Tenth. That an additional clerical force he allowed to enable the commissioners, without making extra demands upon the clerks now in service, to complete and satisfy the Mexicau pension claims, of which 8,000 have been allowed since the passage of the act. The report shows that there were at the close of the year 406,007 pensioners, classified as follows: 294,445 army invalids; S5,010 army widows, minor children and dependent relatives; 3,281 navy invalids; 1,973 navy widows, minor child ren and dependent relatives; 1,069 survivors of the war of 1812, and 11.831 widows of those who served in that war; 7,503 survivors of the war with Mexico, and 895 widows of those who served in said war. There were added to the rolls during the year the names of 55,194 new pensioners and the names of HARDWARE AND CUTLERY.
